

20th Anniversary National Tour

Los Angeles Sunday, February 17, 2013

Skirball Cultural Center, 2701 Sepulveda Boulevard

	Main Stage Programs	Interactive Idea Workshops	Film, Video, & Theater	Special Museum Projects	Testimony Film & Collections Highlights	Rescuing the Evidence & Video Interviews	Family Research/ World Memory Project	Building Blocks of Hope
10 a.m.	The Unanswerable Question: Why? A discussion about one of history's great questions with Museum Director Sara Bloomfield and distinguished historian Peter Hayes	Collaboration & Complicity: Who Was Responsible for the Holocaust? An interactive workshop that challenges your assumptions about personal responsibility	Jewish Life Before the Holocaust and Inside Nazi Germany Intimate home movies and rarely seen footage shot by Hitler's mistress and others	Recording Your Family's Oral History Tips on how to capture your family's story for posterity	Screening of the Testimony film from the Museum's Permanent Exhibition	Meetings with Museum staff to discuss or donate Holocaust artifacts or to record statements by Holocaust survivors and WWII veterans	Opportunities to conduct Holocaust-era family research in the Museum's extensive archive and to participate in the World Memory Project	A hands-on art project for families
11 a.m.	Technology in the Hands of Haters: Imagine www.thirdreich.com An exploration of what the Nazis could have done with the Internet	Collaboration & Complicity: Who Was Responsible for the Holocaust? (See above)	Time Capsule in a Milk Can A theatrical performance by Marc Spiegel about the secret archives of the Warsaw Ghetto (ages ten and above)	World Memory Project A glimpse at efforts to build the world's largest online resource for information about individual victims of Nazi persecution		Ongoing throughout the day. Sign up at the room to reserve your spot.	Ongoing throughout the day. Sign up at the room to reserve your spot.	Ongoing throughout the day

Continued next page >>

Please note schedule and programs are subject to change.
For the most up-to-date information and to register, visit ushmm.org/neveragain or call 866.998.7466.

	Main Stage Programs	Interactive Idea Workshops	Film, Video, & Theater	Special Museum Projects	Testimony Film & Collections Highlights	Rescuing the Evidence & Video Interviews	Family Research/ World Memory Project	Building Blocks of Hope
Noon	It's Not My Problem— Why Get Involved? A panel discussion that challenges us to think about the motivating forces behind our individual actions and group dynamics	Mind Over Media: Are You More Powerful Than Nazi Propaganda? A discussion about the power and perils of Nazi propaganda and how to recognize biased information today	Europe on the Brink of War: The Baker and Bryan Film Collections Two unique film collections created by American eyewitnesses to the Nazis' aggressive territorial expansion and persecution	Remember Me? A sampling of remarkable stories of how children orphaned by the Holocaust are still being identified 65 years later	Everyday Objects: What Makes the Ordinary Extraordinary? Auschwitz through the lens of the SS	Meetings with Museum staff to discuss or donate Holocaust artifacts or to record statements by Holocaust survivors and WWII veterans	Opportunities to conduct Holocaust-era family research in the Museum's extensive archive and to participate in the World Memory Project	A hands-on art project for families
1 p.m.	The Unanswerable Question: Why? (See above)	From Memory to Action: Ending Genocide in the 21st Century An exploration of the Museum's work to identify warning signs of genocide	Jewish Life Before the Holocaust and Inside Nazi Germany (See above)	Little-known Stories of Rescue and Refuge in Latin America Unknown stories about the role of Latin Americans in protecting thousands of victims of Nazi persecution	Screening of the Testimony film from the Museum's Permanent Exhibition	Ongoing throughout the day. Sign up at the room to reserve your spot.	Ongoing throughout the day. Sign up at the room to reserve your spot.	Ongoing throughout the day
2 p.m.		Collaboration & Complicity: Who Was Responsible for the Holocaust? (See above)	Liberation and Return to Life Screening of footage highlighting American soldiers and life in displaced person's camps	Little-known Stories of Rescue and Refuge in Latin America (See above)
3 p.m.		Mind Over Media: Are You More Powerful Than Nazi Propaganda? (See above)	Time Capsule in a Milk Can (See above)	World Memory Project (See above)	Everyday Objects: What Makes the Ordinary Extraordinary? Artifacts of American POWs in the Berga camp
4 p.m.	Tribute to Holocaust Survivors and World War II Veterans

These programs continue from 5–7 p.m.